THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Miss Jessaline Sweetser, aged eighteen, a member of the Hopkins Imperial Stock Co., at St. Louis, took a dose of carbolic acid this week rather than play a part in "Sapho." She was saved by the doctors.

Cincinnati will be visited by two noted actresses next week. Mrs. Fiske will give her splendid production of "Becky Sharp" at the Pike, and Mrs. Langtry will play "The Degenerates" at the Grand. Both will be notable engagements and will play to large businesses. "The Degenerates" is not far behind "Sapho."

The advance sale of seats for the appearance at Lexington Thursday night, the 29th, of Mr. Richard Mansfield will begin at the Lexington Opera House next Monday promptly at 9 a. m. The play in which the great actor will this year be seen is his latest triumph, the successful dramatization of Jessie Fothergill's charming story, "The First Violin." In this he is seen as the chivalrous nobleman and delightful musician, Herr Eugen Conrvoisier. Mansfield's success in the play form of the story has very naturally given it new vogue. It is a sweet and tender story of star-crossed love, and the sketch involves only musicians. Everybody in "The First Violin" is a member of the Tonalite Orchestra of Elberthal, or else a student of music; the pictures show the refined Bohemianism of German musical life, and the atmosphere is melodious with the voice and echo of music. Mansfield of course plays the gifted virtuoso who left his castle for a humble place among the violins of the symphony and there met his real love and won her in his own unusual way.

Turf Notes.

Georgetown will hold a tobacco fair May 19.

Solomon Vanmeter of Fayette county, sold to Paris parties 6,000 bushels of bluegrass seed at 47 1/2 cents.

T. M. Arnold and John King, of Garrard, have lost twenty-three cattle from black leg, death resulting in a day after being afflicted with it.

Charles Smith refused $30,000 from T. B. Carter, of Chicago, for Lient, Gibson, the favorite in the Kentucky, Tennessee and American Derbies.

John B. Lyle's race horse Agilator won a $250 purse race at New Orleans Monday and repeated the trick Tuesday. He was the favorite in both events.

The Sentinel-Democrat reports 900 cattle on the market at Mt. Sterling Monday, but trade was dull on account of high prices asked. 700 and 800-lb. cattle brought five cents, yearlings brought any price asked, all good ones selling for over five cents. Heifers sold at 3 1/2 to 4 cents. Joseph H. Stewart, of Bourbon, bought a yoke of steers at $123.50.

The body of the famous trotting mare Maud S. was buried Monday with proper honors in the horse cemetery on the Bonner farm at Eastview, Winchester county, New York. Her grave is beside that of Dexter (2:1 1/4). The plot had been reserved for Maud S. for years. Close by are buried Pocahontas, Peerless, Lady Palmer, Flatbush Maid, Rarus and other famous horses. It is expected that the Bonner family will erect a monument to Maud S.

OBITUARY.

Garret D. Whitson, aged about sixty-five, died at Riddles Mills, and his remains were buried Wednesday.

W. L. Northcutt, aged about sixty-five, died suddenly at Cynthiana Wednesday morning. He was a wealthy merchant, having been in the business there forty years.

The six-months' old child of H. S. Wilhelm died Wednesday on South Main street. The funeral was held at ten o'clock, and the remains were shipped to Livingston for interment.

Have You Heard Of It?

You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact.

The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.
